

Environmental Objectives

- Connectivity of watercourses
- Soil contamination improvements
- Planting plans
- Habitat improvements including construction of deeper ponds, wetlands and creation of complex habitat for a variety of target species including species at risk: fish, amphibians, birds and other wildlife species.
- Preservation of healthy mature trees where possible as well as replacement

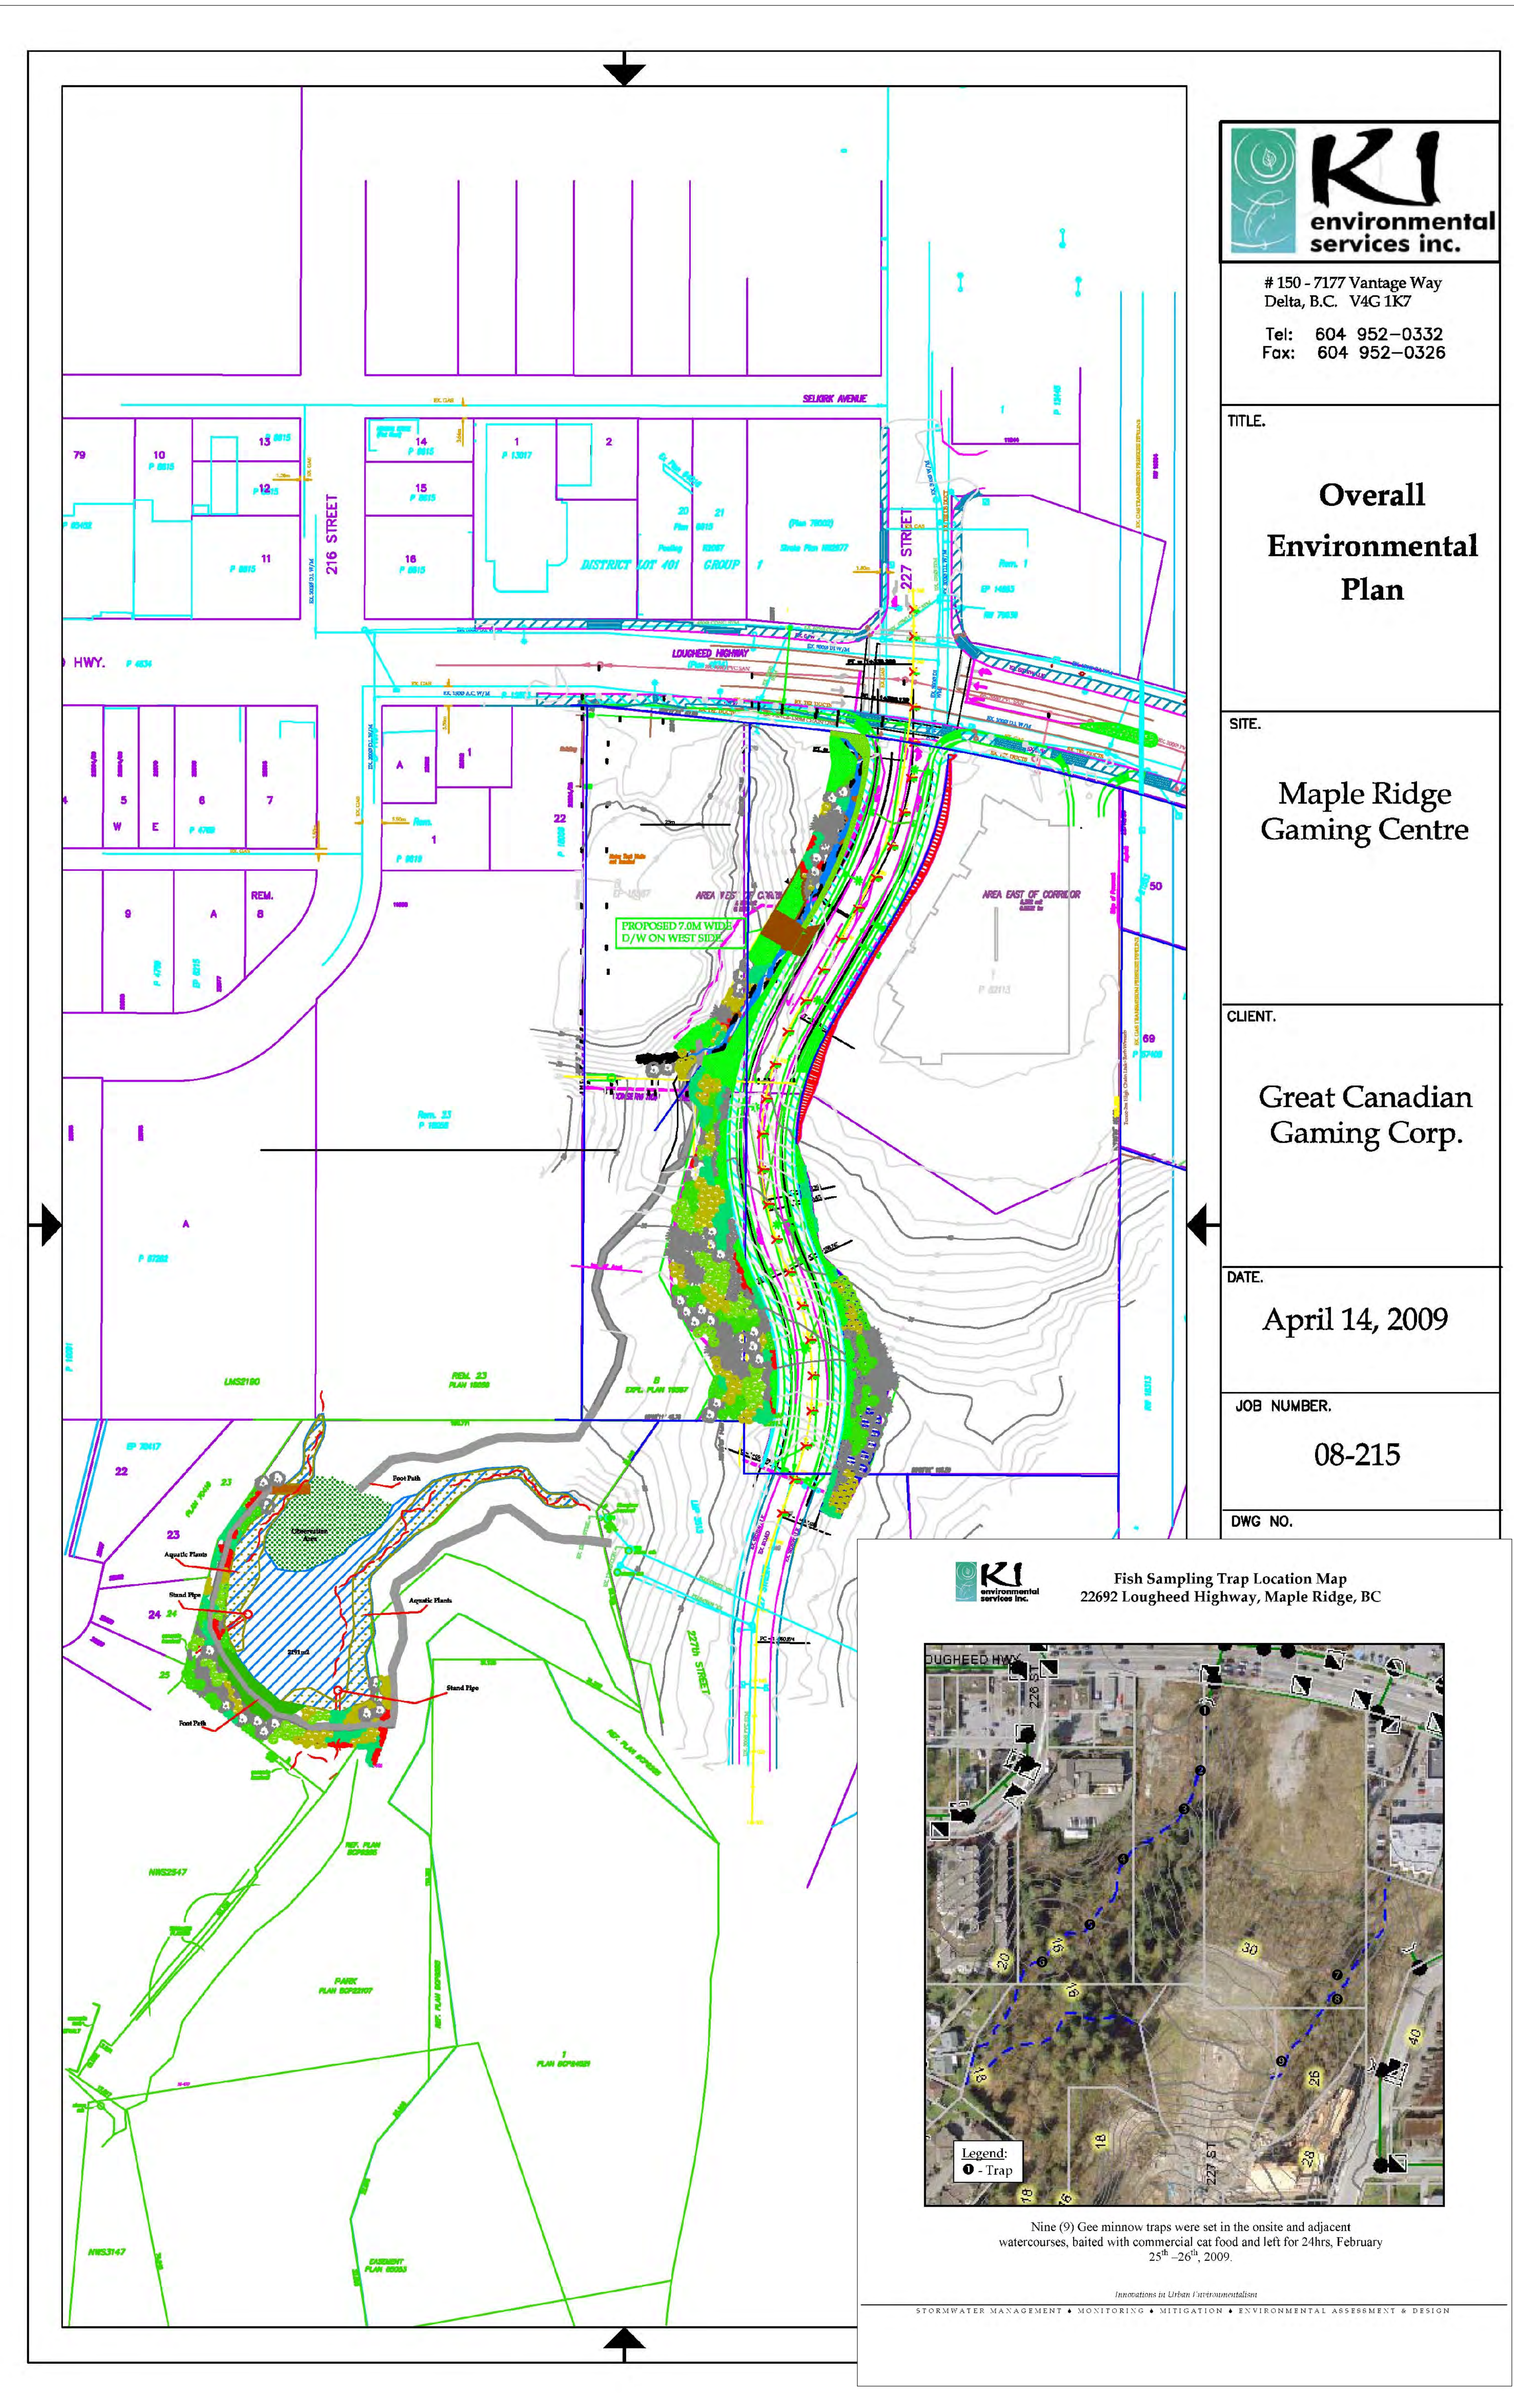

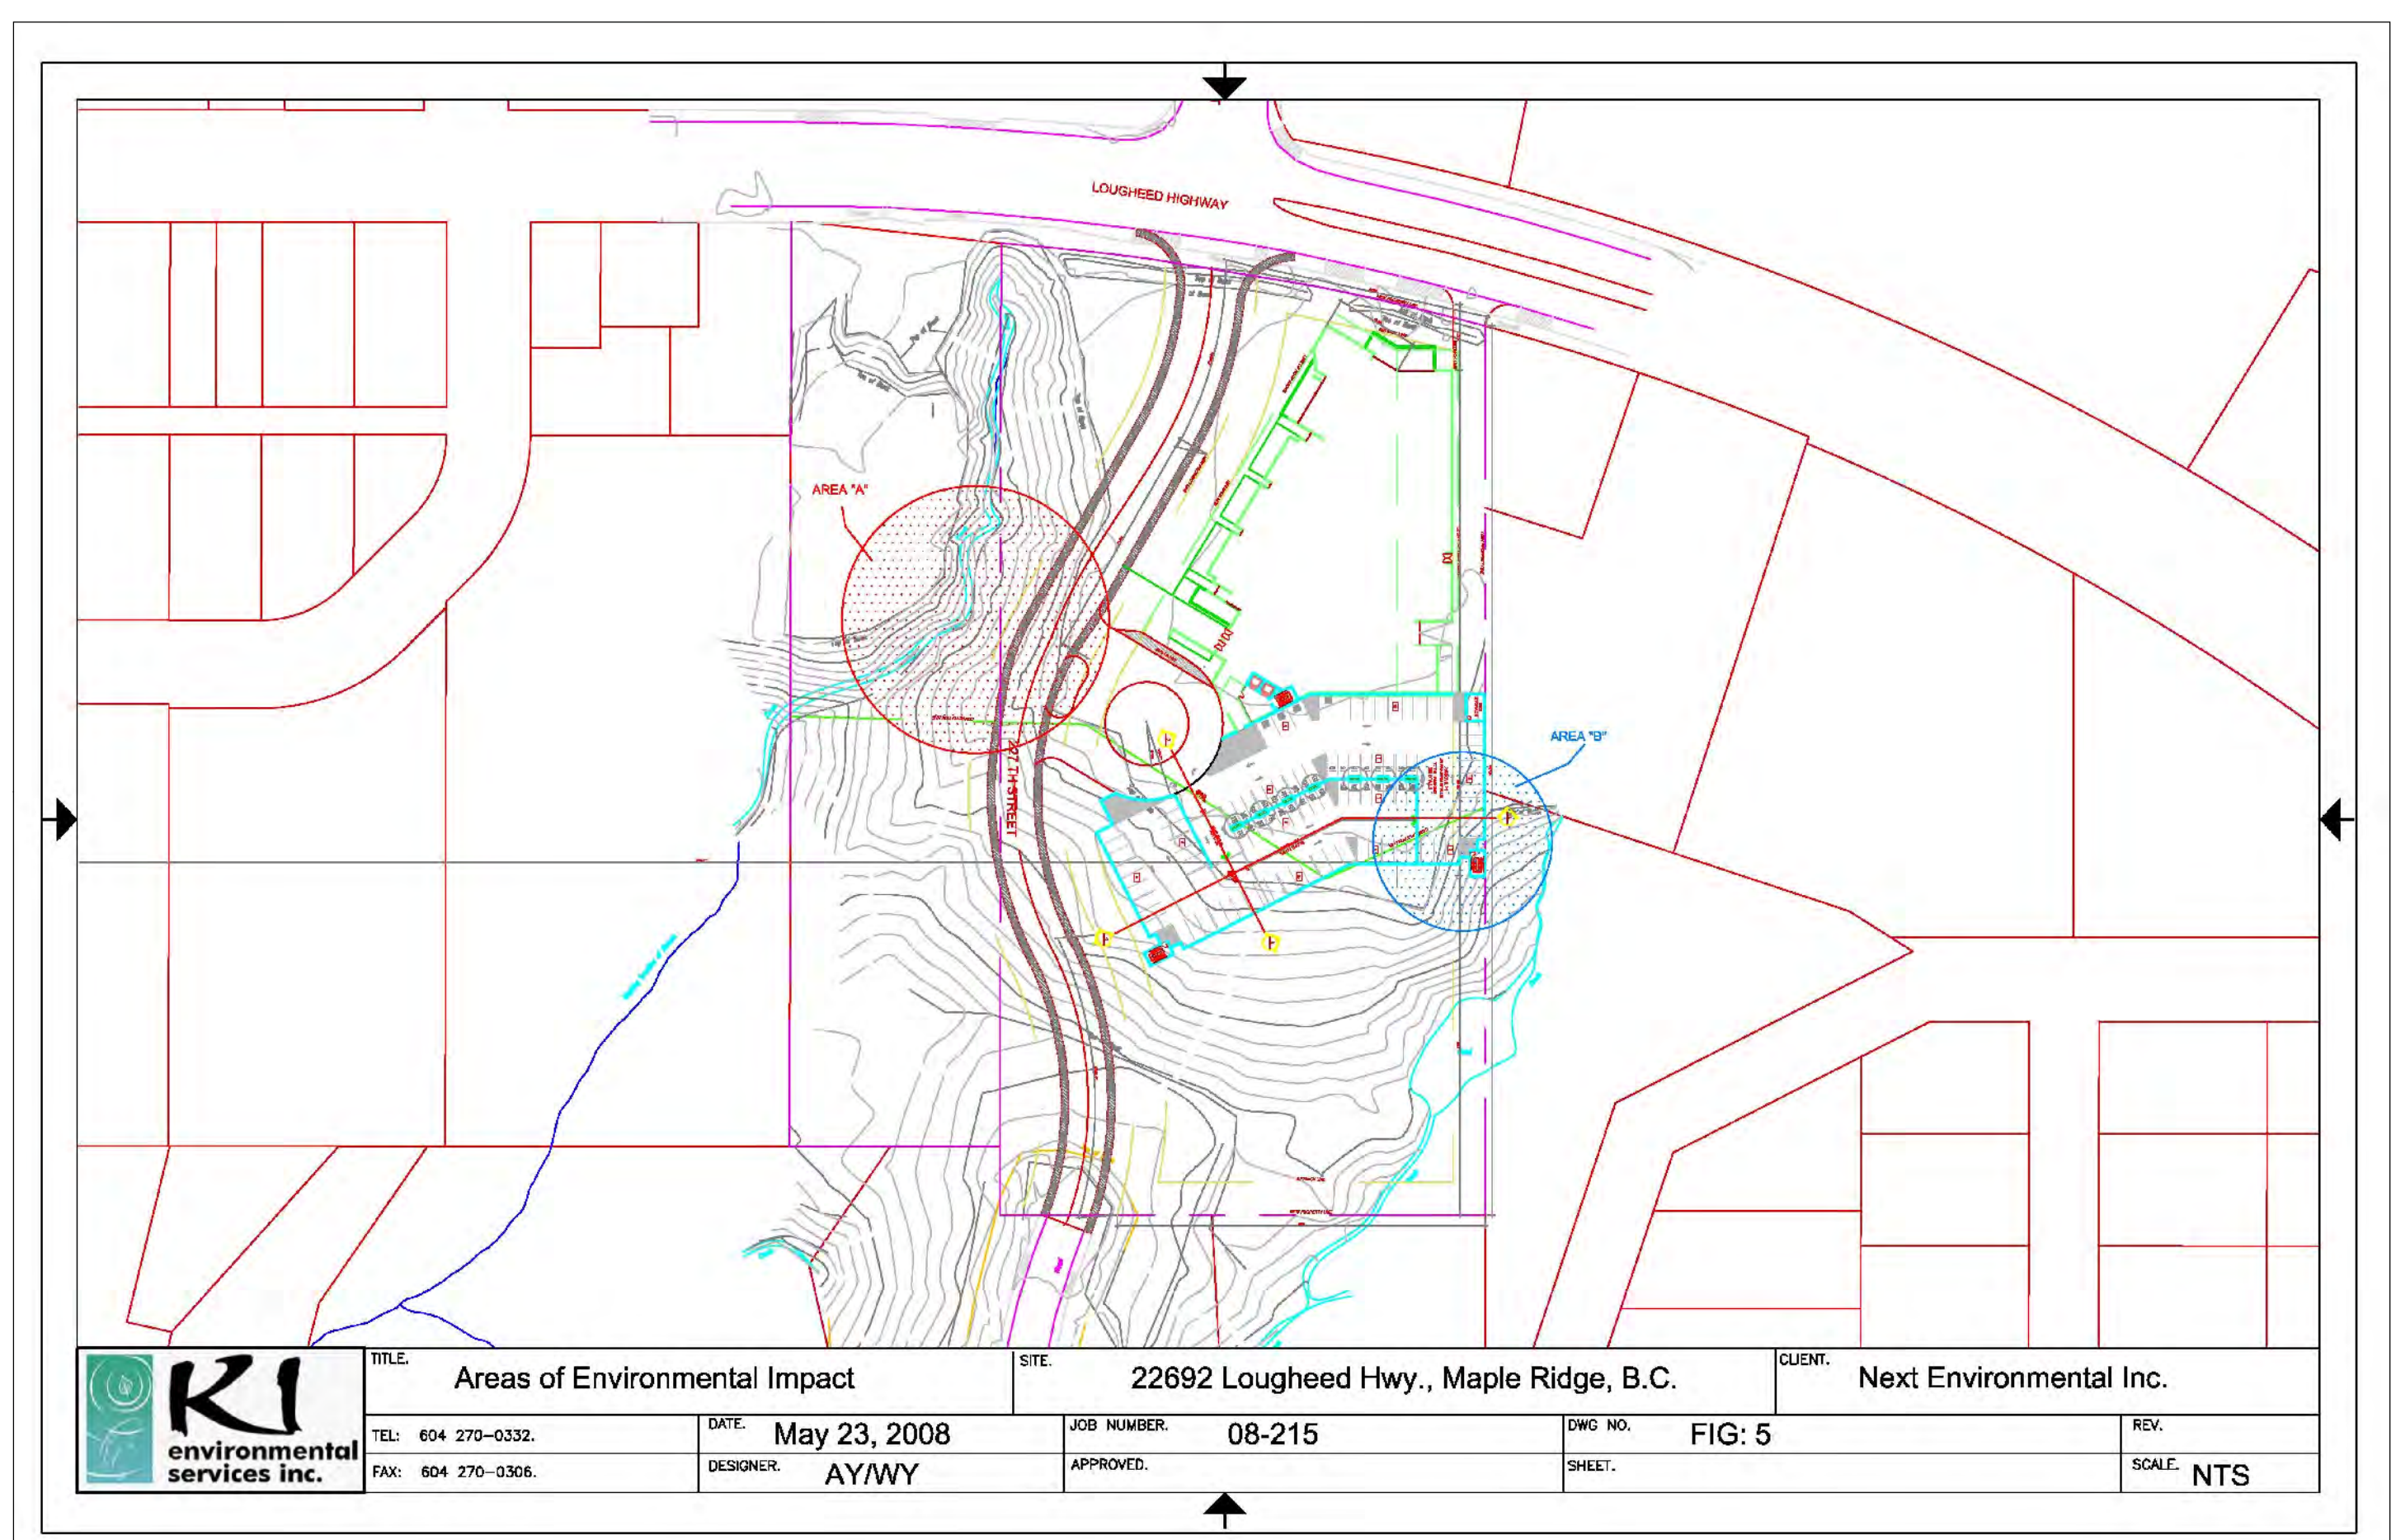

Plate 1: Ambystoma macrodactylum macrodactylum, Western Long-toed Salamander

Plate 8: North. Substantial anthropogenic impacts in the ravine.

Slope restoration efforts