TITLE: CRIMINAL RECORD CHECKS REQUESTED FOR NON-PAID VOLUNTEERS - FEES

POLICY NO. 5.03

APPROVAL DATE: July 5, 1993

POLICY STATEMENT:

Non-profit organizations are to be subject to the usual fees and charges for police reports produced at their request; notwithstanding, their non-paid volunteers involved in unsupervised activities with the following vulnerable individuals may qualify for exemption:

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| a. Children | c. Mentally and/or physically challenged |
| b. Senior citizens | d. Crime Victims |

PURPOSE:

Council wants to encourage criminal record investigations to stop “high risk” individuals from associating with those that are most vulnerable, but recognizes that there is a cost associated with providing that information. The purpose of this policy is to allow non-paid volunteers, working with “high risk” groups, to apply for a fee exemption.

DEFINITIONS:

The use being supported must be consistent with Municipal policies, plans, bylaws, codes and regulation. The taxation burden resulting from the waiver must be a justifiable expense to the taxpayers of the Municipality.
