Meeting Decorum:

Council would like to remind all people present tonight that serious issues are decided at Council meetings which affect many people's lives. Note: This Agenda is also posted on the City's Website at www.mapleridge.ca

The purpose of a Council meeting is to enact powers given to Council by using bylaws or resolutions. This is the venue for debate of issues before voting on a bylaw or resolution.

PUBLIC QUESTION PERIOD

During the COVID-19 health emergency it is important to ensure that our democratic processes continue to function and that the work of the City remains transparent for all citizens. We are doing business a bit differently during this time by having Council members attend remotely and having only necessary staff present in person to administer the meetings. Balancing the health and safety of citizens and our democratic processes is first and foremost in our approach during this health emergency.

The purpose of the Public Question Period is to provide the public with an opportunity to ask questions of Council on items that are of concern to them, with the exception of Public Hearing bylaws which have not yet reached conclusion.

As noted, during the COVID-19 health emergency, we will be using new virtual tools to ensure that citizens' voices are being heard as part of our meetings. For more information on virtual participation please go to <http://mapleridge.ca/640/Council-Meetings>. Each person will be permitted 2 minutes to ask their question (a second opportunity is permitted if no one else is sitting in the chairs in front of the podium). Questions must be directed to the Chair of the meeting and not to individual members of Council. The total session is limited to 15 minutes.

If you have a question or comment that you would normally ask as part of Public Question Period, you can email clerks@mapleridge.ca before 4:00 p.m. on the day of the meeting and your questions or comments will be shared with Council. If you miss this deadline staff will respond to you in writing as soon as possible.

Council reserves the right to defer responding to a question in order to obtain the information required to provide a complete and accurate response.

Council will not tolerate any derogatory remarks directed at Council or staff members.

We thank citizens for their support as we try innovative approaches to keep us all connected even as we separate to stop the spread of COVID-19.

For more information on these opportunities contact:

800 Unfinished Business

TO: His Worship Mayor Michael Morden
and Members of Council
FROM: Chief Administrative Officer
SUBJECT: Business and Financial Planning Guidelines 2021-2025

MEETING DATE: July 28, 2020
FILE NO: 05-1825-02
MEETING: Council

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Over the next few months, staff will be preparing the 2021-2025 Business Plans and Financial Plan for Council's consideration in December. The Business and Financial Plan Guidelines serve as direction to staff and identify the property tax increase acceptable to move forward on Council's strategic priorities. They also provide the community with an indication of service level commitments and anticipated property tax and fee increases.

Typically, the guidelines are approved in the spring, however, they were delayed this year to gain more clarity of how quickly COVID-19 related restrictions and the resulting economic implications would be eased.

The purpose of this report is to have Council review and endorse the guidelines in order for revisions to be made to existing 5 year plans to ensure that staff align work plans to Council's direction.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the 2021-2025 Business and Financial Plan Guidelines be approved.

DISCUSSION:

a) Background Context:

The proposed Business & Financial Planning Guidelines for 2021-2025 are attached and there are a number of reasons for early consideration of these:

- Provide an open and transparent overview of the key assumptions used in the development of the Financial Plan.
- Provide the community with an early indication of proposed property and fee increases.
- Allow for a lengthy public input period, before Council receives the formal Financial Plan that will incorporate these guidelines.
- Provide guidance to staff so that the Financial Plan that is presented to Council in December meets with Council's expectations.

The rationale for the tax increases is covered in detail in the 2020-2024 Financial Plan Overview Report that was provided to Council last December and is available on our website at <https://www.mapleridge.ca/2162/Financial-Overview-Report>.

The proposed annual property tax increase of 3.6% is broken into elements for the sake of transparency:

- General Purpose – this covers the cost of existing services, and depending on how the assumptions of costs increases materialize, may provide a small amount to address incremental adjustments.
- Infrastructure Replacement – this increase goes towards the rehabilitation and replacement of our existing assets. Over the next few decades, this will close the infrastructure funding deficit. Our infrastructure is fairly young, but aging, and we are currently spending just over a third of what is required annually to maintain it.
- Parks, Recreation & Culture Improvements – this increase was introduced to fund the Parks & Recreation Master Plan and funds the new parks and facilities that are not funded through development. These costs include capital, operating and debt servicing. The Community Amenity Charges are also used to fund these amenities.
- Drainage Improvements – these funds are used to improve the drainage system and recently funded the Storm Water Management Plan. This levy does not increase in the later years of the Financial Plan, and depending on how quickly drainage improvements are desired, we may need to revisit this increase in the future.

Property Tax Increase	2021	2022	2023	2024	2025
General Purpose	2.0%	2.0%	2.0%	2.0%	2.0%
Infrastructure	0.7%	0.9%	0.9%	1.0%	1.0%
Parks, Rec. & Culture	0.6%	0.6%	0.6%	0.6%	0.6%
Drainage	0.3%	0.1%	0.1%	-	-
Total Tax Increase	3.6%	3.6%	3.6%	3.6%	3.6%

An assumption of new revenue due to growth or new development is included in the budget, which generates over $1.6 million each year. Increased operating costs associated with growth have also been factored into the Financial Plan accounting for just under half of this new revenue. These operating costs are to maintain existing service levels. The balance of the growth revenue is used to keep the General Purpose component of the property tax increase to 2%.

ALTERNATIVES:

If Council would like to increase service levels or see strategic priorities implemented more quickly, additional investments would likely be required. A one percent property tax increase equates to about $22 on the average home and generates about $900,000 revenue.

With the exception of the General Purpose component, other elements of the property tax increase could be reduced or deferred without impacting current service levels. This would also mean that progress on the initiative is impacted and may result in the cancelation of planned capital.

If no additional significant Parks and Recreation facilities are planned and future Community Amenity Contributions (CACs) are used to fund currently planned projects, the Parks, Recreation & Culture Improvement element of the property taxes could be reduced in later years of the financial plan or the magnitude of the annual increase could be slightly reduced in all years. The timing of CACs are dependent on development and as there are other variables in the funding model, future financial plans may need refinement.

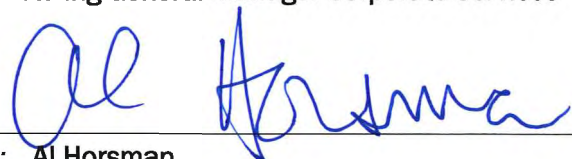

In addition to property taxes, property owners also receive utility user fees. User fee increases are required to fund water, sewer and recycling operations and associated capital costs. There is a reserve or fund balance in each of these areas to assist with rate smoothing. The majority of rate increase pressures in water and sewer user fees come from the region due to large investments in infrastructure, such as treatment plants. The Water Revenue Fund has the most flexibility to manage a temporary pause in rate increases. This will cause a slight delay in the funding of the infrastructure deficit for the water utility.

CONCLUSION:

A significant amount of work on Business Planning will be done over the coming months and into the fall. The guidelines attached to this report will allow staff to develop a plan, aligned with Council direction.

- 1.8. Growth in Property Tax Revenue Assumption between 1.70% and 1.80% per year.
- 1.9. Provision for costs associated with growth, subject to available funding.
- 1.10. Budgets include operating and capital components for a five-year period.
- 1.11. The Financial Plan reflect the intent of Council's strategic Financial Sustainability Plan policies approved in October 2004.
- 1.12. Collective Agreements – the financial plan needs to include sufficient financial capacity to address collective agreement settlements or the emerging patterns.
- 1.13. Grants – Targeted grant funding sources should be reflected in the financial plan, along with the associated project costs.
- 1.14. Community Amenity Charges will be used to fund the Parks & Recreation projects that borrowing was approved for. This will reduce the amount of debt financing required.

Appendix A – Business & Financial Planning Guidelines 2021-2025

2. Guidelines for Business Planning:

- 2.1. Consider Council-raised issues in developing work plans, respecting the criteria for establishing priorities and recognizing that capacity is needed for opportunities or issues that might be discovered throughout the year.
- 2.2. Review property tax rates annually to ensure we are competitive with other lower mainland municipalities. The 2020/2021 Farm Class adjustment is included.
- 2.3. Review utility charges with a view towards using rate stabilization practices to smooth out large fluctuations in rates.
- 2.4. Develop and initiate a public consultation plan.
- 2.5. Evaluate services to ensure alignment with Council direction.
- 2.6. Identify and measure outputs/outcomes. Performance measures will be published in the Annual Report and on the website and where possible will leverage data used in the Maple Ridge Open Government Portal.
- 2.7. Performance reports are to be presented to Council at open Council meetings, both with consideration of Council priorities and departmental commitments.
- 2.8. Identify potential new revenue sources (i.e. be creative). The increased revenues from existing sources should align with the cost increases for those services.
- 2.9. Used as a management tool, service level reductions are explored and kept confidential with the Corporate Management Team. Reduction packages should reflect significant changes to an area's operation that results in a fundamental shift in what or how services are delivered. Given the degree of cross-functional projects and service delivery, departments should consider collaborative reduction packages in partnership with other departments.
- 2.10. Incremental packages must include a business case to support new programs/projects/staff.
- 2.11. Organizational/structural change considerations should include whether the current structure is adequate to deliver the service. Are there better options? Should we contract for services, or bring services in-house where and when it makes sense organizationally and financially.
- 2.12. Succession planning – review organization charts in relation to service delivery with a view to long-term planning. What positions do you see as potentially becoming vacant by retirement and what organizational options may be available as a result? What training or overlap is required to provide sufficient knowledge transfer to ensure resilient service levels?
- 2.13. Vacant position review and management – all positions that become vacant are subject to a detailed review prior to being refilled.
- 2.14. Contracting/Consulting review – all consulting work should undergo a review at not only budget time, but also when services are being contracted to determine the best way to acquire services. This will involve potentially contracting out where it makes sense and contracting in where there are available staff resources.
- 2.15. Technology – review business applications and technology tools to identify upgrade or obsolescence issues. Ensure work plans, budgets and Information Services work plans/projects reflect the resources necessary to support the changes if required.
- 2.16. Work plans will identify short-term, medium and longer-term action items that Council may consider, as we work towards carbon neutrality.

SUBJECT: Corporate Communication & Community Engagement - Policy No. 5.57

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

On June 23, 2020, Council provided feedback on the draft Corporate Communication & Community Engagement Policy which was prepared to deliver a current and more modern guide to reflect the evolution of the City's approach in informing, educating and engaging citizens. The redlined words in the attached Corporate Communications & Community Engagement Policy reflect changes that capture the comments and suggestions from that review. This new policy is anticipated to replace the Communication - Policy No. 5.41 which was adopted 22 years ago, on March 24, 1998.

RECOMMENDATION(S):

That Communication - Policy No. 5.41 be repealed in its entirety: and,

That the new City of Maple Ridge Corporate Communication & Community Engagement - Policy No. 5.57 be adopted.

a) Background Context:

The changes to the policy reflect the feedback received from Council on June 23, 2020 as part of the Workshop meeting. The most substantial change is the automatic five year review of this policy which has been embedded as section 17. The review cycle will ensure that this document reflects the organizational evolution, changes in best practices around communications and engagement and technological changes that might impact the broad policy framework.

b) Desired Outcome:

To replace the outdated 1998 Communication - Policy No. 5.41 with the Corporate Communication & Community Engagement - Policy No. 5.57 to ensure we effectively inform and engage our citizens on the work of their local government.

c) Strategic Alignment:

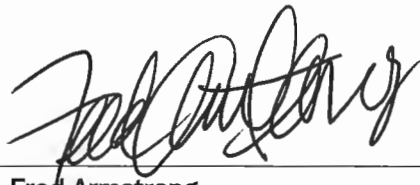

This policy plays a vital role in all the City's communications and aligns with Council's Strategic Priority regarding Community Pride and Spirit.

d) Policy Implications:

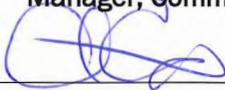

The new Corporate Communication & Community Engagement - Policy No. 5.57 will replace the Communication - Policy No. 5.41 and will serve as a new reference for Council and staff.

CONCLUSION:

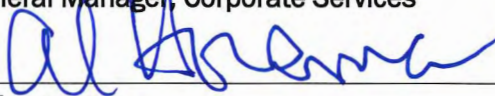

The Corporate Communication & Community Engagement - Policy No. 5.57 will guide the City and Council through current communication platforms, tools and best practices in local government and will be a useful resource in the future. Staff recommend that this new policy be considered for adoption.

Values:

Accessibility: The City must communicate and engage in various ways that respect the diversity of the community to ensure the widest possible applications and delivery including the use of traditional methods such as, face-to-face, telephone and in print.

Accountability: Our communications and engagement must always reflect that we take responsibility for our actions, words, goals and objectives. When we make an error, we must not only correct it, but apologize and take responsibility for it.

Empathy: To serve those in our community, we need to understand their needs and expectations. Our relationship with citizens is driven by our ability to listen to their concerns, understand and feel compassion for their perspectives and to offer answers and solutions that strengthen their relationship with our community.

Listening: As an organization, including Council and staff, we will strive to listen to the input from our citizens to gain new information, view an issue from a unique perspective, reduce conflict and build confidence and trust with our citizens.

Friendliness: As individuals, and as an organization, our communications, systems and the execution of our work must be delivered with friendliness, kindness and compassion.

Timeliness: We must communicate with citizens as quickly as possible without compromising key values. If an interaction requires seeking additional or detailed information and input from colleagues, we will acknowledge the request and define expectations around the communications and/or community engagement.

Transparency: We must be and be perceived to be completely transparent about the work we do. People trust those who have nothing to hide, and it is often an error of omission that creates mistrust.

Information must be available to people living locally, and where practicable, to those outside the City's boundaries.

b. Cataloguing and Securing Information

Published information in all formats, past and present, will be updated on a regular basis, well indexed, easily retrievable and security maintained in compliance with corporate policy and legal requirements.

c. Publishing

The City must provide citizens access to its publications (whether by sale or otherwise).

Departments will:

- maintain a register or record of all publications
- publish all public information on the City's website and in hard copy, where feasible and reasonable
- ensure that all published materials include the title of the publication, author(s), source, date of publication, City logo, and, and where applicable standard bibliographic reference numbers (International Standard Book Numbers) or International Standard Serial Numbers
- make publications available on request (for purchase if applicable)
- ensure that the permission of subjects is gained (whether they be staff, clients, students or members of the public) when publishing photographs in department and/or City publications. Photo Release Consent Forms are available from the Communications Department.

2 Advertising

Advertising is a key method of making citizens aware of the City's initiatives, available programs and services as well as changes Council may be considering. The effectiveness of the City's advertising is in large part dependent on the advertisement being immediately recognized as originating from the City and the content being informative, comprehensive, and easily understood.

a. Local Advertising

The vast majority of the City's advertising relates to public and statutory notices, auctions and tenders, recruitment, program offerings, and construction project notices.

The combining of individual advertisements into one comprehensive advertisement shall be undertaken whenever possible, and individual discretionary advertisements shall only be placed with the recommendation of the Manager Community Engagement & Relations.

Departments will:

- follow advertising protocols established between the City and the newspaper (contact the Manager Community Engagement & Relations for details)
- identify that the advertisement has been placed by the City and contains appropriate contact information (address, telephone number, email and web address) to allow the reader to follow-up for further information
- use the current and correct version of the City logo
- obtain approval from the Manager Community Engagement & Relations for advertising in publications outside the community

b. Advertising In Other than Local Papers

On occasion, departments will advertise in regional, provincial or national newspapers, publications and/or websites. Departments must identify that the advertisement has been placed by the City and contains appropriate contact information (address, telephone number, email and web address) to allow the reader to follow-up for further information.

3 Consultation and Community Engagement

An open and responsive consultative process with the community is vital for effective public policy development and for gaining public support for decisions. This requires a partnership approach with the community and ensures that the City explains, communicates and receives feedback from the community.

Departments will:

- inform the community of opportunities to participate in public consultation and citizen engagement initiatives
- use communications methods that will reach key stakeholders, engage them in two-way communications, elicit their concerns, involve them in the decision making process, and provide feedback or follow-through
- ensure that communications or information materials prepared for consultative purposes are professionally presented and identified as being from the City.

4 Corporate Identity

Identity applies to all communications or information media such as print, electronic, television, radio and the website, and all communications or information products, including advertising, publications, stationery, audio-visuals, website, signage and collateral items such as clothing and giftware.

The use of a consistent corporate identity ensures savings through standardization and best practices in information design. The City logo and tagline are Official Marks registered in the Canadian Intellectual Property Office.

Departments will ensure:

- buildings, facilities, vehicles, programs, services and activities carry the approved City logo
- all information and communications materials for internal or external use, regardless of medium, carry the approved City logo.

Where more than one department is engaged in an undertaking, please refer to the “Graphic Guidelines” published by the Communications Department to determine the appropriate placement of the City’s logo.

5 Corporate Public Events and Announcements

Corporate Public Events are occasions attended by members of Council for the purpose of publicizing significant initiatives or contributions of the City. Adequate planning and preparation are important in ensuring a professional image for the City.

When undertaking a public event, departments must refer to the “Protocols” guidelines prepared by the Communications Department.

6 Crisis and Emergency Management

Effective communications are a vital and integral part of both crisis and emergency management before, during and after an emergency to help prevent injury or loss of life, limit damage to assets and property, maintain public services and to assist in the process of recovery and to maintain or restore public confidence in the City. Media and public scrutiny are to be expected in a crisis or emergency and the City’s reputation and credibility will be judged by our response.

To ensure effective emergency management, all management staff must be familiar with and follow the procedures outlined in the Emergency Response Plan developed by the Information Officer/Manager of Community Engagement & Relations (Disaster Response Plan based on the BCERMS model).

7 Diverse Needs

Communications and engagement materials must depict diversity in society in a fair and inclusive manner representing the ethnic, cultural and religious diversity within Maple Ridge as well as those with special needs and abilities.

City communications must not contain unacceptable language, sexual stereotyping, and unfair depiction of people in relation to race, ethnic origin, religion or disability.

When planning and executing communications, consideration should be given to any available means to communicate with people from diverse ethnic or religious backgrounds or persons with special needs and abilities including literacy levels and sensory disabilities.

8 Internal Communications

To achieve optimal organizational performance and support of City goals, departments must create a positive environment where feelings of trust, awareness, openness, security, involvement and confidence predominate, particularly between managers and employees. This means articulating the organization’s vision and objectives, implementing feedback mechanisms and recognizing and celebrating staff innovation, achievements and customer service excellence. Properly engaged in the life of an organization, employees can be valuable allies in external communications.

To foster employee knowledge, awareness and understanding of department and City business, policies and activities, departments will:

- have in place a system, process or mechanism for communicating with employees
- develop and implement strategies that encourage proactive and interactive communications
- develop and implement mechanisms that recognize the contribution of staff (and volunteers) for service delivery and meeting business objectives
- develop and implement communications strategies for the collection, dissemination and exchange of information and knowledge
- communicate with employees openly, frequently, and where possible before or at the same time as information is communicated to the public, or as soon as possible

Internal communications activities and processes must be reviewed from time to time to evaluate results, to identify areas for improvement, and to make adjustments as needed.

9 Council Communication

Where an individual member of Council expresses an opinion, it should be made clear to the audience that he or she is not speaking on behalf of the City or Council as a body. Individual members of Council are encouraged to reflect the opinion of Council as a whole, or state that comments reflect their own personal opinion.

The decisions of Council shall be reflected as collective corporate decisions. (Please refer to the Mayor & Council Correspondence Policy for more details.)

10 Media Relations, Spokespersons and News Releases

For many citizens, local newspapers, radio and television are their primary sources of news and information about City activities, issues and events. Media coverage of City's activities and issues need to be accurate, timely and in context.

Departments are expected to take a proactive approach to working with the media to promote public awareness and understanding of City policies, programs, services and initiatives.

News Releases are an effective method of disseminating information. The City's approved template must be used for News Releases and can be obtained by contacting the Communications Department. News Releases should be checked first by the Communications Department with final copies provided to the Communications Department after approval by the CAO and/or CMT.

Whenever possible, News Releases on behalf of the Mayor and Council and other public notifications of significance will be distributed first to members of Council and senior management.

Departments will:

- identify managers or staff with the knowledge and/or technical expertise to provide input to media responses or to speak as official representatives of their department
- ensure that designated spokespersons receive instruction in media relations
- respond promptly and accurately to all media inquiries providing factual information
- develop, disseminate and maintain in-house protocols regarding designated spokespersons
- contact the Manager of Community Relations & Engagement prior to acceptance of any invitation to appear on a radio or television program
- promptly submit a copy of news releases issued to the Communications Department

11 Monitoring and Evaluation

Measurement is a critical component of any communications, engagement campaign or strategy developed in support of policy or program initiatives. The objectives of this policy are to ensure these are well-coordinated and effectively managed and are appropriate for the needs of the citizens of Maple Ridge and contribute to the advancement of City objectives and priorities. The effectiveness of such can only be determined through monitoring and evaluation. The performance of communications products should be measured against objectives set out in communications and business plans.

Departments must evaluate compliance with the requirements of this policy in consultation with stakeholders and evaluations will be conducted by the Manager of Community Relations & Engagement to assist the City to meet its objectives.

12 Partnerships

Partnerships are mutually beneficial and co-operative relationships where partners share values, objectives, resources (human, material or financial), roles and responsibilities to achieve mutually desired outcomes. Partnerships can bring together expertise from a range of sectors, and provide a means of developing cohesive and integrated services.

When planning, negotiating or implementing a partnership or collaborative arrangement, communications requirements must be taken into account to avoid misunderstandings. These includes:

- establishing communications and engagement roles and responsibilities of all parties
- determining and delineating the corporate identity, visibility, publishing, marketing and promotional activities to be used in the partnership
- communicating joint activities/initiatives in a manner that is fair and equitable to all parties

While advertising and promotional activities involving the media may be part of the partnership's communications and engagement strategy, such efforts must not be a focus but an aide to informing the public.

Departments will:

- ensure that appropriate identifiers are used to acknowledge and attribute the contributions of all participants, e.g. corporate names and/or logos
- use the City's logo when identifying their own participation in a collaborative arrangement to enable public recognition of the contributions of the City
- ensure that the parties involved acknowledge the City's contribution in their own communications with the public
- articulate the communications and engagement protocols in partnership agreements, and where possible, communicate the results of collaborative arrangements through normal audit, evaluation and performance reporting processes

13 Project/Issue Specific Communications & Engagement Strategy/Plans

A shared responsibility exists between the service department, the Communications Department and other support departments. Communications and engagement strategies and plans should be an integral part of program and policy initiatives and be fully accounted for within budgets and financial plans.

Significant projects and "urgent or developing" issues require specific communications and community engagement plans. Such plans will:

- integrate City priorities
- identify internal and external audiences
- take account of the internal and external environments
- delineate strategies, tools, messages and responsibilities for engaging with target audiences
- set out operational needs and resource allocations

14 Research and Public Surveys

Research and Public Surveys are used to gain a better understanding of the needs, expectations or emerging concerns of the citizens in our community.

They may be used to:

- assess the public's response to proposals or to possible changes or initiatives
- assess the effectiveness of policies, programs and services
- measure progress in service improvement
- evaluate the effectiveness of communications activities, such as advertising

When contracting policy research departments must adhere to the requirements of the City's Procurement Policy.

15 Social Media

The City will use Social Media to reach out to citizens. The City's Social Media brand will be consistent across platforms, including Facebook, Twitter and Google+ as 'yourmapleridge.' Employees are required to read and be familiar with the City's Social Media Policy.

16 The Website

The website, mapleridge.ca, is an important tool for providing information and services to the public 24 hours a day, and for facilitating interactive, two-way communications within the City and with external audiences. Departments are responsible for their own electronic publications.

To ensure publishing standards and communication requirements are met, departments must:

- ensure that all website publications comply with Provincial and Federal laws
- ensure access to and usability by the widest possible target community appropriate to the service or information resource
- ensure that the services and information provided online are comparable in quality and functionality to those delivered by other means
- ensure that information on policies, programs, services and initiatives published on the website is regularly updated, accurate, easy to understand and includes a mechanism for receiving and acknowledging feedback from the public (including online)
- respect privacy rights and copyright ownership in all online publishing and communications in compliance to any applicable laws or regulations
- ensure that the permission of subjects is gained (whether they be staff, clients, students or members of the public) when publishing photographs on the City website
- ensure that information published on websites is recorded and archived to preserve the City's history
- read and be familiar with the following City policies:
 - Community Directory & Events Calendar Postings on Website
 - Information Security

- ensure that the permission of subjects is gained (whether they be staff, clients, students or members of the public) when publishing photographs in department and/or City publications. Photo Release Consent Forms are available from the Communications Department.

2 Advertising

Advertising is a key method of making citizens aware of the City's initiatives, available programs and services as well as changes Council may be considering. The effectiveness of the City's advertising is in large part dependent on the advertisement being immediately recognized as originating from the City and the content being informative, comprehensive, and easily understood.

a. Local Advertising

The vast majority of the City's advertising relates to public and statutory notices, auctions and tenders, recruitment, program offerings, and construction project notices.

The combining of individual advertisements into one comprehensive advertisement shall be undertaken whenever possible, and individual discretionary advertisements shall only be placed with the recommendation of the Manager Community Engagement & Relations.

Departments will:

- follow advertising protocols established between the City and the newspaper (contact the Manager Community Engagement & Relations for details)
- identify that the advertisement has been placed by the City and contains appropriate contact information (address, telephone number, email and web address) to allow the reader to follow-up for further information
- use the current and correct version of the City logo
- obtain approval from the Manager Community Engagement & Relations for advertising in publications outside the community

b. Advertising In Other than Local Papers

On occasion, departments will advertise in regional, provincial or national newspapers, publications and/or websites. Departments must identify that the advertisement has been placed by the City and contains appropriate contact information (address, telephone number, email and web address) to allow the reader to follow-up for further information.

3 Consultation and Community Engagement

An open and responsive consultative process with the community is vital for effective public policy development and for gaining public support for decisions. This requires a partnership approach with the community and ensures that the City explains, communicates and receives feedback from the community.

Departments will:

- inform the community of opportunities to participate in public consultation and citizen engagement initiatives
- use communications methods that will reach key stakeholders, engage them in two-way communications, elicit their concerns, involve them in the decision making process, and provide feedback or follow-through
- ensure that communications or information materials prepared for consultative purposes are professionally presented and identified as being from the City.

4 Corporate Identity

Identity applies to all communications or information media such as print, electronic, television, radio and the website, and all communications or information products, including advertising, publications, stationery, audio-visuals, website, signage and collateral items such as clothing and giftware.

The use of a consistent corporate identity ensures savings through standardization and best practices in information design. The City logo and tagline are Official Marks registered in the Canadian Intellectual Property Office.

Departments will ensure:

- buildings, facilities, vehicles, programs, services and activities carry the approved City logo
- all information and communications materials for internal or external use, regardless of medium, carry the approved City logo.

Where more than one department is engaged in an undertaking, please refer to the "Graphic Guidelines" published by the Communications Department to determine the appropriate placement of the City's logo.

5 Corporate Public Events and Announcements

Corporate Public Events are occasions attended by members of Council for the purpose of publicizing significant initiatives or contributions of the City. Adequate planning and preparation are important in ensuring a professional image for the City.

When undertaking a public event, departments must refer to the "Protocols" guidelines prepared by the Communications Department.

6 Crisis and Emergency Management

Effective communications are a vital and integral part of both crisis and emergency management before, during and after an emergency to help prevent injury or loss of life, limit damage to assets and property, maintain public services and to assist in the process of recovery and to maintain or restore public confidence in the City. Media and public scrutiny are to be expected in a crisis or emergency and the City's reputation and credibility will be judged by our response.

To ensure effective emergency management, all management staff must be familiar with and follow the procedures outlined in the Emergency Response Plan developed by the Information Officer/Manager of Community Engagement & Relations (Disaster Response Plan based on the BCERMS model).

7 Diverse Needs

Communications and engagement materials must depict diversity in society in a fair and inclusive manner representing the ethnic, cultural and religious diversity within Maple Ridge as well as those with special needs and abilities.

City communications must not contain unacceptable language, sexual stereotyping, and unfair depiction of people in relation to race, ethnic origin, religion or disability.

When planning and executing communications, consideration should be given to any available means to communicate with people from diverse ethnic or religious backgrounds or persons with special needs and abilities including literacy levels and sensory disabilities.

8 Internal Communications

To achieve optimal organizational performance and support of City goals, departments must create a positive environment where feelings of trust, awareness, openness, security, involvement and confidence predominate, particularly between managers and employees. This means articulating the organization's vision and objectives, implementing feedback mechanisms and recognizing and celebrating staff innovation, achievements and customer service excellence. Properly engaged in the life of an organization, employees can be valuable allies in external communications.

To foster employee knowledge, awareness and understanding of department and City business, policies and activities, departments will:

- have in place a system, process or mechanism for communicating with employees
- develop and implement strategies that encourage proactive and interactive communications
- develop and implement mechanisms that recognize the contribution of staff (and volunteers) for service delivery and meeting business objectives
- develop and implement communications strategies for the collection, dissemination and exchange of information and knowledge
- communicate with employees openly, frequently, and where possible before or at the same time as information is communicated to the public, or as soon as possible

Internal communications activities and processes must be reviewed from time to time to evaluate results, to identify areas for improvement, and to make adjustments as needed.

9 Council Communication

Where an individual member of Council expresses an opinion, it should be made clear to the audience that he or she is not speaking on behalf of the City or Council as a body. Individual members of Council are encouraged to reflect the opinion of Council as a whole, or state that comments reflect their own personal opinion.

The decisions of Council shall be reflected as collective corporate decisions. (Please refer to the Mayor & Council Correspondence Policy for more details.)

10 Media Relations, Spokespersons and News Releases

For many citizens, local newspapers, radio and television are their primary sources of news and information about City activities, issues and events. Media coverage of City's activities and issues need to be accurate, timely and in context.

Departments are expected to take a proactive approach to working with the media to promote public awareness and understanding of City policies, programs, services and initiatives.

News Releases are an effective method of disseminating information. The City's approved template must be used for News Releases and can be obtained by contacting the Communications Department. News Releases should be checked first by the Communications Department with final copies provided to the Communications Department after approval by the CAO and/or CMT.

Whenever possible, News Releases on behalf of the Mayor and Council and other public notifications of significance will be distributed first to members of Council and senior management.

Departments will:

- identify managers or staff with the knowledge and/or technical expertise to provide input to media responses or to speak as official representatives of their department
- ensure that designated spokespersons receive instruction in media relations
- respond promptly and accurately to all media inquiries providing factual information
- develop, disseminate and maintain in-house protocols regarding designated spokespersons
- contact the Manager of Community Relations & Engagement prior to acceptance of any invitation to appear on a radio or television program
- promptly submit a copy of news releases issued to the Communications Department

11. Monitoring and Evaluation

Measurement is a critical component of any communications, engagement campaign or strategy developed in support of policy or program initiatives. The objectives of this policy are to ensure these are well-coordinated and effectively managed and are appropriate for the needs of the citizens of Maple Ridge and contribute to the advancement of City objectives and priorities. The effectiveness of such can only be determined through monitoring and evaluation. The performance of communications products should be measured against objectives set out in communications and business plans.

Departments must evaluate compliance with the requirements of this policy in consultation with stakeholders and evaluations will be conducted by the Manager of Community Relations & Engagement to assist the City to meet its objectives.

12 Partnerships

Partnerships are mutually beneficial and co-operative relationships where partners share values, objectives, resources (human, material or financial), roles and responsibilities to achieve mutually desired outcomes. Partnerships can bring together expertise from a range of sectors, and provide a means of developing cohesive and integrated services.

When planning, negotiating or implementing a partnership or collaborative arrangement, communications requirements must be taken into account to avoid misunderstandings. These includes:

- establishing communications and engagement roles and responsibilities of all parties
- determining and delineating the corporate identity, visibility, publishing, marketing and promotional activities to be used in the partnership
- communicating joint activities/initiatives in a manner that is fair and equitable to all parties

While advertising and promotional activities involving the media may be part of the partnership's communications and engagement strategy, such efforts must not be a focus but an aide to informing the public.

Departments will:

- ensure that appropriate identifiers are used to acknowledge and attribute the contributions of all participants, e.g. corporate names and/or logos
- use the City's logo when identifying their own participation in a collaborative arrangement to enable public recognition of the contributions of the City
- ensure that the parties involved acknowledge the City's contribution in their own communications with the public
- articulate the communications and engagement protocols in partnership agreements, and where possible, communicate the results of collaborative arrangements through normal audit, evaluation and performance reporting processes

13 Project/Issue Specific Communications & Engagement Strategy/Plans

A shared responsibility exists between the service department, the Communications Department and other support departments. Communications and engagement strategies and plans should be an integral part of program and policy initiatives and be fully accounted for within budgets and financial plans.

Significant projects and "urgent or developing" issues require specific communications and community engagement plans. Such plans will:

- integrate City priorities
- identify internal and external audiences
- take account of the internal and external environments
- delineate strategies, tools, messages and responsibilities for engaging with target audiences
- set out operational needs and resource allocations

14 Research and Public Surveys

Research and Public Surveys are used to gain a better understanding of the needs, expectations or emerging concerns of the citizens in our community.

They may be used to:

- assess the public's response to proposals or to possible changes or initiatives
- assess the effectiveness of policies, programs and services
- measure progress in service improvement
- evaluate the effectiveness of communications activities, such as advertising

When contracting policy research departments must adhere to the requirements of the City's Procurement Policy.

15 Social Media

The City will use Social Media to reach out to citizens. The City's Social Media brand will be consistent across platforms, including Facebook, Twitter and Google+ as 'yourmapleridge.' Employees are required to read and be familiar with the City's Social Media Policy.

16 The Website

The website, mapleridge.ca, is an important tool for providing information and services to the public 24 hours a day, and for facilitating interactive, two-way communications within the City and with external audiences. Departments are responsible for their own electronic publications.

Deleted: www.

To ensure publishing standards and communication requirements are met, departments must:

- ensure that all website publications comply with Provincial and Federal laws
- ensure access to and usability by the widest possible target community appropriate to the service or information resource
- ensure that the services and information provided online are comparable in quality and functionality to those delivered by other means
- ensure that information on policies, programs, services and initiatives published on the website is regularly updated, accurate, easy to understand and includes a mechanism for receiving and acknowledging feedback from the public (including online)
- respect privacy rights and copyright ownership in all online publishing and communications in compliance to any applicable laws or regulations
- ensure that the permission of subjects is gained (whether they be staff, clients, students or members of the public) when publishing photographs on the City website
- ensure that information published on websites is recorded and archived to preserve the City's history
- read and be familiar with the following City policies:
 - Community Directory & Events Calendar Postings on Website
 - Information Security

17 Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every five years from the date of approval by Council. Council will be provided with recommended updates, as required, based on changes in the corporate reporting structure, changes in best practices or technological changes that need to be addressed in the Policy framework.

Containing Principles, Responsibilities and Guidelines

The following statements describe the District's Communication Policy by addressing information relating to principles, responsibilities and guidelines. This document is intended to be a working document for the organization.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Principle: Success in any organization is contingent upon the practice of effective, timely and accurate communication.

Responsibilities: It is the responsibility of the CAO and Council for determining integral communication for the organization.

General Managers are responsible for advising on communication strategies and providing effective methods of communication support services and technology to Divisions throughout the organization.

The Director of Personnel acts for the District in promoting corporate support on human resource issues, resolving conflicts in the communication process between labor and management.

All Directors and Managers are responsible for the standard and effectiveness of communications within their own departments, not only via receipt, understanding and delivery of corporate information, but through good listening techniques and upward communication.

All employees have a responsibility to be well informed, to be a source of credible information and support to each other and to our customers.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Planning

A communications plan will be considered and reviewed with respect to decision-making or work plans that have a significant or potential impact on the organization and/or our customers.

Principle

Effective communication depends on good planning

Responsibilities:

Managers are responsible for communication planning, and for ensuring that plans will achieve the level of communication required.

General Managers, Directors and other key individuals will assist in developing formal communication plans and provide expert advice on the planning process.

Guidelines:

1. An information communication plan can be as simple as a verbal agreement among parties on how communications are to be carried out. Informal plans are appropriate in cases of limited need for communication or where the communication process is well established.
2. A formal communication plan should be in written form and should address issues of audience, media, timing and responsibility for preparation of materials and delivery of messages.
3. A good communication plan should begin with a listing of the audience which may be affected by or have an interest in the goal or decision.
4. If the plan involves broad corporate audiences, both internal and external, the manager should contact the Division General Manager for assistance and discussion of the plan.
5. The best method of communication should be chosen to deliver the message to the audience it is meant for.
6. All Divisions or Departments involved with the release of communication, should be informed prior to the public announcement

Guidelines

1. Make an effort to gather the approvers together for joint reviews, avoiding costly and time-consuming "back and forth" discussions.
2. Assure that materials reviewed from within a department will not be in conflict with the views of the department head or the organization.
3. One contact within a department may be designated responsible for gathering input from staff.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Disclosure

Forthright communications with our internal and external customers is expected.

Extent of disclosure shall be determined by the District's ability, resources and legislative constraints.

Principle: Achieve credibility through professional approach to information delivery. If people believe information is being withheld, they won't consider the source to be credible.

Responsibilities: Ultimate authority on disclosure matters will rest with the CAO and Council, except where legislation dictates otherwise.

Guidelines:

1. Prompt disclosure of information that may be considered important by our internal and external customers is essential to the District's credibility.
2. Very few of our organization's actions or activities should be considered inappropriate for public disclosure. Freedom of Information guidelines and requirements apply.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Internal Communication

There shall be a free flow of information throughout the organization to make sure that all staff are kept well informed about the organization and its activities.

Principle: The success of an organization is dependent upon people and a purpose. Communication is the medium used to bring people and the purpose together.

Responsibilities: All employees have a responsibility to be well informed about significant matters affecting the District.

Responsibility for effective internal communications largely rests with directors, managers and supervisors, for they are the resources available to employees and are the most credible representation level.

The CAO and General Managers have overall responsibility for advising management on internal communication matters and for revising communication strategies and processes.

- Guidelines:
1. Whenever possible, information about the District, issues, policies, programs and people, should be communicated to employees in a timely manner, in advance of communication to external customers.
 2. Employees want to know about such topics as benefits, their jobs, wages, opportunities and the policies that shape their positions, training and educational opportunities. Employees have shown a keen interest in these areas.
 3. Directors and managers are encouraged to develop their own internal communications programs, making best use of technology, as well as meeting face to face with employees on a regular basis.
 4. While communication through the supervisory chain is preferred and often is the most effective, other communications such as bulletin boards, e-mail, voice mail, newsletters, etc., are also important to an effective internal communication program.

POLICY STATEMENT:

External Communication

The District's objective is to be a reliable source of credible information, consistent to our mission and value statements.

Principle: An organization that acts in the public's interest will have the trust and confidence of an informed public.

Responsibilities: All staff and elected officials are responsible for earning the trust and confidence of the public.

Every manager has a responsibility to assure timely availability of information to staff in order that employees can communicate accurately to the public.

Responsibility for initiating the District's formal communications with external sources is assigned to each individual department, with more formal communications being conducted by the Director of Community and Business Relations.

POLICY STATEMENT:

News Releases

In preparing news releases, it is necessary to balance the District's interest in presenting information in a positive manner with the news media's interest in serving the needs of readers, listeners and viewers.

Principle: A good news release answers more questions than it raises.

Responsibilities: The CAO, senior management or designate will prepare all corporate news releases and, when necessary, shall serve in an "advocacy role" to make sure that the media's interests are represented in content, style and emphasis.

Guidelines: Every effort is made to prepare news releases that are complete, accurate and timely.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Credibility

Whenever practical, the person having responsibility, authority or the most knowledge about the subject will serve as the spokesperson.

Principle: The most credible person to communicate information is the one who represents the highest level of responsibility and knowledge about the subject.

Responsibilities: Council or senior management will recommend individuals to serve as spokesperson on specific projects.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Erroneous Information

With respect for the viewpoints of others, we will promptly correct erroneous information conveyed on matters of importance to the District.

Principle: Silence can be interpreted as confirmation; erroneous information, to the extent that it is practical to do so, should not go unchallenged.

Responsibilities: All managers and staff should be alert to situations in which responses might be in order, and bringing them to the attention of the appropriate Division Manager, or on matters of organizational-wide interest, to the CAO.

Guidelines: The decision on when to correct erroneous information is a judgement call. Generally speaking, the District should set the record straight when:

- a. The organization or any of its employees are falsely accused of wrongdoing.
- b. Erroneous information will damage the District's reputation.
- c. Public understanding of an issue in which the District is directly involved is likely to have been seriously jeopardized.

POLICY STATEMENT:Language and Style

Every effort will be made to keep the language of our communications simple and the format of our documentation consistent.

Principle: Simplicity of language and consistency of style help us communicate more effectively and earn the trust and respect of our customers.

Responsibilities: Every employee who communicates a message is responsible for communicating clearly and effectively.

Guidelines: 1. Utilize visual aids and descriptions wherever possible.

 2. Refer to policies, which may cover the communication delivery, such as public relations policy, legislation and council decisions.

POLICY STATEMENT:

Litigation

Litigation will not be a reason for silence on matters of importance to the District and its customers. Communicators will be sensitive to the legalities in communicating and will review all releases with the CAO.

Principle: Non-communication with interested audiences on matters being litigated can be more harmful to the District's position than timely communications based on what is already public knowledge.

Responsibilities: The manager, in concert with the CAO, MIA or corporate counsel, shall prepare informational materials on litigated issues which could be of interest to the press or the public.

Guidelines:

1. All litigation matters will be referred to the CAO.
2. Any litigation settlement that becomes part of the public record, available to the news media and deemed newsworthy by the attorney and/or the communicator shall be communicated on a timely basis wherever appropriate.
3. Evaluation of placement of non-disclosure stipulations in settlement agreements will be reviewed with the CAO and MIA. Our decision on no-disclosure should be communicated to all parties so they are aware of our intentions and the suitability to withhold information.

- d. The City will provide links to credible and more detailed sources of information to support our interactions when possible;

- f. The City will be forthright about our relationships, opinions and identity;
- g. The City will respect the rules of the Social Media venue (i.e. Facebook terms of use, Twitter terms of use, etc.)
- h. The City will protect privacy and permissions and move interactions off line to ensure the privacy and confidentiality of citizens;
- i. When the City moderates interactions, a poster's opinion will be respected and accepted regardless of whether it is positive or negative, provided that the opinion is 'on topic' and not offensive, denigrating, or out of context;
- j. Employees of the City will conduct themselves, at all times, in accordance with all City policies. Interaction on City Social Media sites will be considered as conducting City business. Employees found in violation of this Policy may be subject to disciplinary action;
- k. The City reserves the right to restrict or remove any content or users deemed in violation of this Policy or any applicable law.

Harmonizing Social Media Activity With Other Communications Channels:

The City of Maple Ridge website, www.mapleridge.ca, will remain the City's primary and predominant Internet presence.

Content provided to the Social Media Site Administrator should, when possible, refer users to links at www.mapleridge.ca so that the public can access detailed information, relevant forms and other documents related to the post. Content on Social Media posts should be consistent with information provided through other communications channels such as print advertising, media releases or publications available to the public. Links and content from external sources will, as much as possible, be aggregated to the City website.

City Social Media Site Postings

Postings will consist of communications that support the City's Vision, Mission, Value Statements and Strategic Goals. Social Media sites may be used for:

- a. Announcements, such as community or public events organized by the City or partner organizations, and engagement not subject to legal processes as defined by the Municipal Act (e.g. the Public Hearing process);
- b. Links to information or media releases relating to programs and initiatives of the City;
- c. Photo or video galleries of community events or gatherings;
- d. Information on volunteer opportunities and programs from partner organizations of the City;
- e. Links to career postings for employment at the City;
- f. Public safety information from the RCMP, Maple Ridge Fire Department or Emergency Operations personnel as approved by Site Administrators;

Social Media sites will not be used for:

- a. Personal postings by employees. Employees communicating through City Social Media sites will do so only in their official capacity. Further, when employees intervene on external Social Media sites with regard to either professional or City issues, they are expected to identify their connection and position with the City.
- b. Hosting of conversations relating to issues that will be dealt with through public hearings or other official consultations. These processes are subject to specific legislative processes and have statutory conditions and obligations.
- c. Platforms for campaigning during local, provincial or national elections or referendums. Postings by elected officials, prospective or declared candidates or their supporters will be removed immediately for the period of 60 days prior to the relevant election.

The City will post 'Terms of Use Statements' on each of its Social Media sites to ensure the content guidelines described above are clearly understood (see section title 'Comments' for the Terms of use Statement content).

The Social Media Site Administrator and Social Media Moderators may disclose titles and roles within the City, as well as 'official' contact information such as City telephone numbers and email addresses, as is the practice in media releases and print advertising. Personal contact information for City staff will never be posted on Social Media sites.

Posters must understand that any comment posted online is permanently available to the public and open to being reposted or published in other media. Personal privacy, libel, copyright and private-sector data protection laws apply.

If an error is made on a post, accurate information will be reposted by a Social Media Site Administrator or Social Media Moderator as quickly as possible with an acknowledgment of the error. It is critical that City interactions are transparent and honest. Using the term 'UPDATE' or 'REVISED' in front of a re-post, as well as a comment post to indicate that information has been updated is a respectful and 'best practice' for interacting with the public.

Employees who have more than one identity on Social Media sites (i.e. a 'work' identity and a 'personal' identity) must understand that they are bound by their obligations of confidentiality and accountability for ALL comments made in Social Media, not just those made on 'official' City Social Media outlets. All employees should be aware that personal comments may be misinterpreted as official City comments and therefore use social media responsibly.

Comments

Please note: This section of the Policy, up to and including point 'I' will serve as the Terms of Use Statement for City Social Media Sites.

Comments on the City's Social Media site posts are welcome. The Social Media Site Administrator monitors all posts.

Council granted first reading for Zone Amending Bylaw No. 7442-2018 on March 13, 2018. Council granted first and second reading for Official Community Plan Amending Bylaw No. 7499-2018 on January 29, 2019 and second reading for Zone Amending Bylaw No. 7442-2018 on January 29, 2019. This application was presented at Public Hearing on February 19, 2019 and Council granted third reading on February 26, 2019. Approval was granted by the Ministry of Highways and Infrastructure on June 30, 2020.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Official Community Plan Amending Bylaw No. 7499-2018 be adopted; and

That Zone Amending Bylaw No. 7442-2018 be adopted.

DISCUSSION:

a) Background Context:

Council considered this rezoning application at a Public Hearing held on February 19, 2019. On February 26, 2019 Council granted Third Reading to Official Community Plan Amending Bylaw No. 7499-2018 and Zone Amending Bylaw No. 7442-2018 with the stipulation that certain conditions be addressed.

The following are the conditions and explanations of how they are being fulfilled by the applicant:

- i) Registration of a Rezoning Servicing Agreement as a Restrictive Covenant and receipt of the deposit of a security, as outlined in the Agreement;
Staff comment: The agreement has been signed and will be registered after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- ii) Approval from the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure;
Staff comment: Granted by the Ministry on June 30, 2020.

- iii) Amendment to Official Community Plan Schedule "C";
Staff comment: Official Community Plan Amending Bylaw No. 7499-2018 will be adopted concurrently.
- iv) Park dedication as required, including removal of all debris and garbage from park land;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- v) Consolidation of the subject properties;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- vi) Registration of a Restrictive Covenant for the Geotechnical Report, which addresses the suitability of the subject properties for the proposed development;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- vii) Registration of a Restrictive Covenant for the protection of the Environmentally Sensitive areas (wetlands) on the subject properties;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel. Concurrently, there will be a Notice registered on title in accordance with the Local Government Act for the natural Features and Watercourse Protection Development Permit.
- viii) Registration of a Restrictive Covenant for protecting the Visitor Parking;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- ix) Registration of a Restrictive Covenant for Stormwater Management, including maintenance instruction for strata residents;
Staff comment: To be registered at the Land Title Office after execution by the City through an Undertaking provided by the applicant's legal counsel.
- x) Retaining the services of a Qualified Environmental Professional (QEP) to determine, if feasible, the most appropriate location and appropriate design for a trail interconnect with the Polygon trail system across and to the west of Morley Creek, to be constructed and paid for by the applicant; Staff comment: The outcome of the study undertaken by the developer's QEP resulted in two findings: (1) bridging the creek would result in significant environmental impacts. It was determined that is not an impact the developer or the City is prepared to accept even with mitigation; and (2) the cost for the bridge structure and environmental mitigation, if it were to proceed, would not be financially feasible for the developer. Therefore, the developer proposed and has made a $70,000 voluntary payment in lieu of the pedestrian bridge link, to be applied toward pedestrian trail improvements in the area of the project. Staff recommends that Council accept this voluntary payment as fulfilling the condition x).
- xi) Registration of a statutory right of way (SROW) through the development site for public access to the trail crossing Morley Creek;
Staff comment: With no bridging of Morley Creek, this SROW is no longer needed to be provided.

- xii) Removal of existing building/s;
Staff comment: Staff has been advised that historically, there have been no buildings built on the subject site.
- xiii) In addition to the site profile, a disclosure statement must be submitted by a Professional Engineer advising whether there is any evidence of underground fuel storage tanks on the subject properties. If so, a Stage 1 Site Investigation Report is required to ensure that the subject property is not a contaminated site.
Staff Comment: The Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment indicated the site has been historically vacant and forested. Underground tanks are unlikely to be on the site.
- xiv) That a voluntary contribution, in the amount of $131,000 ($4,100/unit) be provided in keeping with the Council Policy with regard to Community Amenity Contributions.
Staff comment: This contribution has been received.
- xv) That a voluntary contribution, in the amount of $159,000 be provided in keeping with the Council Policy with regard to Density Bonus Program Allocation to Affordable Housing Community Amenity Contributions.
Staff comment: This contribution has been received.

CONCLUSION:

As the applicant has met Council's conditions, it is recommended that Final Reading be given to Official Community Plan Amending Bylaw No. 7499-2018 and Zone Amending Bylaw No. 7442-2018.
