

PROPOSED LOCATION FOR A NEW MULTI-USE SPORTS COURT

KIN PARK

KIN PARK

THIS IS WHAT A MULTI-USE SPORTS COURT LOOKS LIKE. THIS COURT WAS RECENTLY INSTALLED AT COOK PARK.

KIN PARK

In November of 2022 the City initiated a public engagement process in which we asked participants to comment on the idea of installing a basketball hoop on the existing tennis court at Kin Park.

While there appeared to be strong interest from the neighbourhood to play basketball at Kin Park, there were some concerns raised about including a basketball hoop on the tennis court.

Last fall we received 53 responses from residents.

Below are the results of some of the questions:

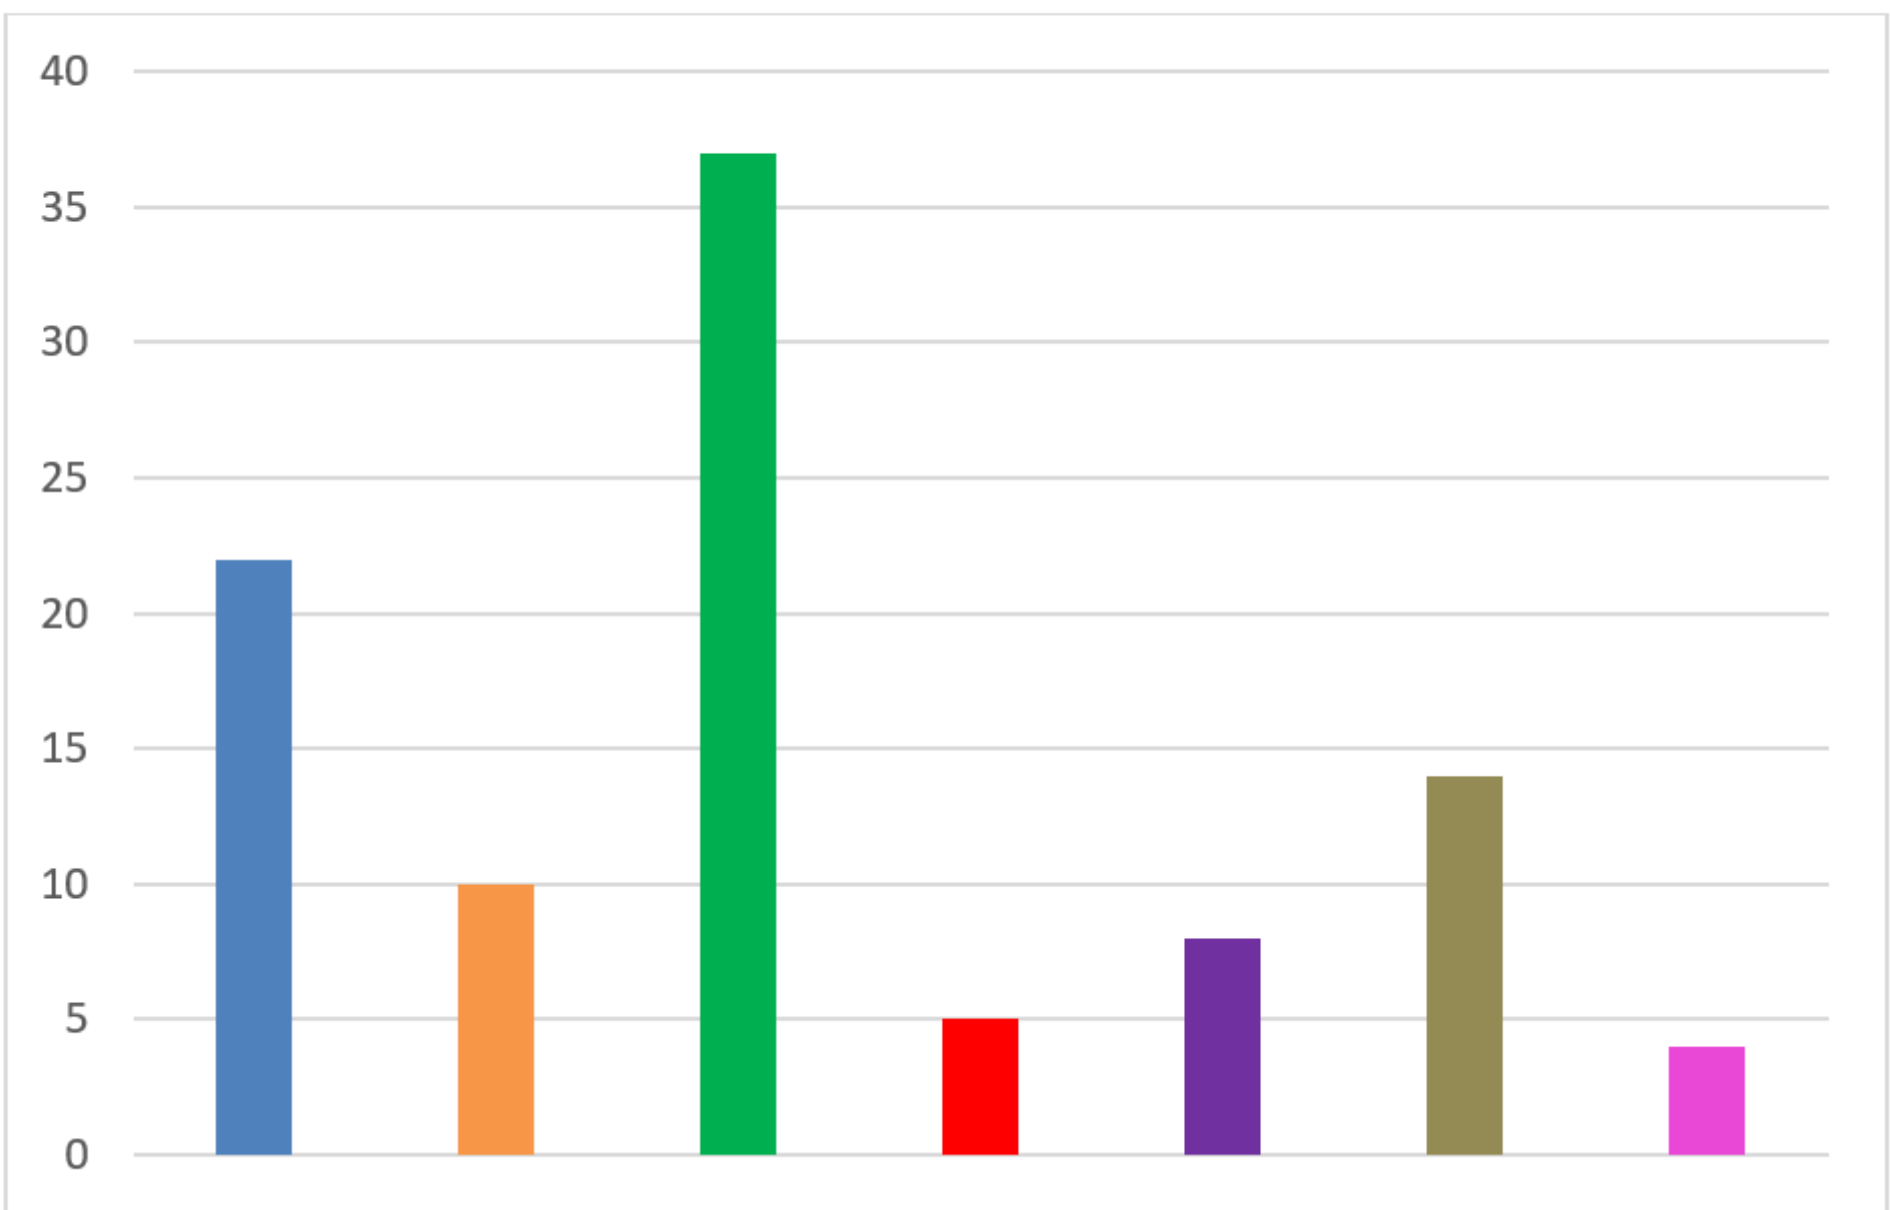

Please select the option that best describes your interest in this project:

 I (or my family) go to Kin Park to use the tennis court space.	6 (12%)
 I (or my family) go to Kin Park to use other park features (playground, field, pathways)	33 (69%)
 I live in the neighbourhood but don't go to this park often	3 (6%)
 Other	6 (12%)

What court sport(s) would you like to play at Kin Park?

 Tennis	22 (22%)
 Ball Hockey	10 (10%)
 Basketball	37 (37%)
 Pickleball	5 (5%)
 Badminton	8 (8%)
 Volleyball	14 (14%)
 Other	4 (4%)

 Yes	38 (73%)
 No	14 (27%)

