Message from the Mayor of Maple Ridge

On behalf of Council, I am pleased to present our 2009 Citizens Report for the District of Maple Ridge. This report provides an overview of the District's financial information, department highlights and accomplishments, and other information about our community.

As we have done in previous Citizens Reports, we continue to highlight the many elements which define livability in our community. Some of those elements include the natural environment, recreational and leisure opportunities, festivals and events, arts and culture, agriculture, community services, schools and heritage. We asked residents, "What do you love about Maple Ridge?" As you flip through the pages, you'll notice their quotes, which are as unique and diverse as every individual. However, what connects all of us is a strong belief and commitment that Maple Ridge is a special community, which embodies character, offers a variety of activity and is unique in its natural beauty.

As I read the quotes from some of our citizens, it made me consider what I love about Maple Ridge. Quite simply, it is my hometown. I have deep family roots that reach back over a hundred years. Maple Ridge is a special community with so much to offer every citizen. I am proud of its heritage and hopeful for its bright, prosperous future while maintaining its spirit. It is my honour, privilege and pleasure to be your Mayor and to serve the community my family calls home.

As you peruse the 2009 Citizens Report, reading the information, seeing Maple Ridge's story unfold through spectacular photographs and learning what livability means to fellow citizens, we encourage and invite you to consider what you love about Maple Ridge.

Through its first year of a three-year mandate, Council maintained its strong focus and commitment to concentrate on efforts which support three pillars of priorities – economic, social and environment. Equally, these pillars support the high level of livability in our community. To achieve a delicate balance between these interlocking priorities, this Council believes a key to our success has been and will continue to be our ability to establish and maintain positive working relationships between ourselves and other levels of government, regional agencies and community organizations.

This philosophy resulted in many of the accomplishments achieved during our first year and fuels our commitment to the priorities for 2010. An example of the results from this focus on establishing and maintaining positive working relationships is the multi-million dollar improvement project on 224 Street and Lougheed Highway which is being funded by the District of Maple Ridge, the Province of British Columbia and the Government of Canada.

Ernie Daykin, Mayor

Our citizens elected this Council with expectations of addressing many important priorities including improved transportation and transit, sustainability and protection of green space, shopping opportunities, increased industrial tax base and local job creation, and public safety.

Building upon this Council's achievements in 2009 and dealing with these important priorities with our partners in a respectful, collaborative, cooperative manner, our citizens will continue to see benefits and enhancements that define livability in Maple Ridge.

Some of the significant goals for 2010 include:

- Seven new West Coast Express cars into service
- Construction of sewer to 256 Street correctional facilities, and continued attention on bringing businesses focused on high tech, post secondary opportunities and advanced manufacturing to our community
- RCMP contract negotiations, 24/7 staffing at Fire Hall 3, implementation of Wildlife Protection Plan, and construction of a new animal shelter in partnership with the BC SPCA
- Improvements on 224 Street and Lougheed Highway from 222 Street to 224 Street, and review of incentives for densification and redevelopment
- Plan for use of Environmentally Sensitive Areas data assembled over the past few years and prioritizing the implementation of the Agricultural Plan
- Significant progress on the Albion Flats Concept Plan which will include public input and consultation through a community charette and public open house
- Implementation plan for the Parks & Recreation Master Plan, policy discussion regarding acquisition of strategic lands, sequencing policy for future area plans, Zoning Bylaw review, final comments regarding the Regional Growth Strategy, potential for a drainage utility and Affordable Housing Strategy

Supporting Council's vision to enhance the many livability factors which define our community is District staff, an experienced and dedicated team of highly qualified professionals. Council welcomes your comments. You can reach us by email at mayorandcouncil@mapleridge.ca or by phone at 604-463-5221. We encourage your participation and contribution to ensure Maple Ridge continues to be an exceptional community in which to live, work and play — today and for generations to come.

COMMUNITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL DEVELOPMENT

Spirit Square

On July 11, 2009 at 11:00 am, representatives of the District of Maple Ridge and the Province of BC joined the community of Maple Ridge to celebrate the official opening of Spirit Square at Memorial Peace Park. This community celebration was the culmination of several years of work partnering with the provincial government through the BC Spirit Squares program. This program was initiated as a legacy to BC's 150th anniversary and invited communities from across the province to become part of the program which was aimed at enhancing the community spirit of every town or city that participated.

At the official opening, Mayor Ernie Daykin said, "We are very fortunate to have added this beautiful square to our Town Centre. Besides recognizing the contributions of the Province of British Columbia and the District of Maple Ridge, I want to send a special thanks to all of the businesses in the area and their customers for their patience and cooperation while this project was under construction. Spirit Square has turned out to be a wonderful place."

To begin the process, in 2007, the District of Maple Ridge applied for the grant and received $500,000 to create its Spirit Square and build upon the success of Memorial Peace Park. The plan was to extend the park into the newly created square which would be centred between McIntosh Avenue and 119 Avenue along 224 Street. The design was intended to allow for a plaza-type feature on the roadway, with a paving stone circular pattern at its centre. With this extension from Memorial Peace Park, it would prove to be an ideal setting for festivals, community events and the weekly Farmers Market scheduled from May to October.

"What I love about living in Maple Ridge is it has a quaint small town community feel, as well as we are well connected to be in the heart of a cosmopolitan city via a 45 minute commuter train ride." — Greg Turnbull

Construction on Spirit Square began in January 2009 and involved removing a centre road median, replacing storm sewer and water lines, widening sidewalks, planting additional street trees, adding hanging flower baskets, new lighting, benches and constructing a new water feature at the entrance to Memorial Peace Park. Other elements included tactile strips at pedestrian corners to better accommodate those with visual impairments, and improved facilities for festivals and special events.

“I moved to Maple Ridge in 1996 because it was clearly a community with a strong sense of its history and culture. I have made my home here because of the strong sense of community, and the excellent library and theatre. I look forward to the new museum and archives that will provide another place where newcomers and old timers can learn about themselves and each other.”

- Work with other agencies to achieve the goal"

Representing the three partners at the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding were Ernie Daykin, Mayor of Maple Ridge; Randy Cooke, President of the Maple Ridge Pitt Meadows Chamber of Commerce and Ernie Beaudin, President of the Downtown Maple Ridge Business Improvement Association.

"Citizens, businesses, community organizations and local government working together can make a difference! I encourage all of our citizens and businesses to participate in this exciting initiative," said Mayor Daykin.

The department relies heavily on cross-training and good communication to ensure that the department functions efficiently and effectively. Each of the assistant chiefs assumes responsibility for the operation of the individual Fire Halls. In addition to administrative duties, the chief officers assume the role of Duty Chief, which involves responding to all serious Fire Department emergency calls 24-hours-a-day, on a rotational basis.

Highlights of our 2009 achievements follow:

- Public education and relations events in the community including: Hot Summer Nights, Camp Goodtime, Summer Safety Smart Cards and fire safety presentations to all grade 5/6 students in Maple Ridge schools. Fire Prevention Week was full of activities including school fire drills, Panago Pizza partnership, Sign-Up the Community program, Fire Chief for a Day, Community Safety Star Awards and an Open House.
- Firefighters continued the “Be Alarmed” Smoke Alarm Program sponsored by the Rotary Club of Haney and Canadian Tire. When firefighters encounter a home that lacks the protection of a working smoke alarm, the program enables firefighters to install smoke alarms at no charge.
- Expansion and renovations to Fire Hall 1 were substantially completed. Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification is being applied for on this project.
- Successfully negotiated a Mutual Aid Agreement with Township of Langley, Mission and Pitt Meadows and determined the Golden Ears Bridge Joint Jurisdiction response protocols with Pitt Meadows and Township of Langley
- Conducted inspections of all apartment structures

- Continued with the implementation of the Fire Department Master Plan including the recruitment and training of additional paid-on-call firefighters and the hiring of six full-time career firefighters to allow three firefighters to staff Fire Hall 3 during the daytime seven days a week.
- The Charities Committee held several events throughout the year including the Car Wash for the Vancouver General Hospital Burn Unit, Missing “Juan” (The 1, nicknamed Juan, from the Fire Hall’s name was taken down during construction and went “missing”. “Juan” was held for ransom with all funds going to support the “little Juan’s” at BC Children’s Hospital), Head Shave for the Ridge Meadows Hospital Oncology Unit, Firefighters for Families Food Drive and the Muscular Dystrophy Boot Drive. This committee demonstrates the firefighters’ dedication to the community, high morale in the organization, and the spirit of cooperation and inclusiveness between the full-time and paid-on-call members. Since 2002, these events have raised over $270,000.
- Hosted the BC Training Officers Conference with over 250 attendees
- The Junior Firefighter Youth Academy graduated its 11th class.

Police Services in Maple Ridge

The main priorities of the Ridge-Meadows detachment are to reduce the incidents of crime and threats to public safety and to continue to heighten the sense of safety on streets and neighbourhoods. The RCMP are addressing these priorities from several fronts.

A crime analysis approach to crime enables police to focus on areas or hot spots associated with criminal activity. This analysis identifies crime trends and criminal intelligence which shows where to focus resources. One of the initiatives formed out of criminal intelligence and crime analysis is the formation of a Detachment Marihuana Enforcement Team which has enabled the detachment to respond quickly and efficiently to grow operations without decreasing on-road resources. RCMP have also utilized the ICBC Bait Car Program with several successes in the community.

General Duty uniform members respond to calls for service, but are very active in crime reduction by ensuring known criminals and those before the courts are accountable for their actions. One technique they are using is curfew checks, ensuring those on court-ordered curfews are at home. General Duty members continue to work closely with the Youth Diversion Program with success in decreasing youth recidivism in our communities. But the police cannot do it alone. This detachment is blessed with an abundance of volunteers who willingly sacrifice many hours away from their families in service to their community. The success of service to the community is shared by volunteers working with our organization as Block Watch, Court Watch, Search and Rescue, Bike Patrol, Citizens on Patrol, Auxiliary Constables and the community policing committees. Our Community Safety Officers continue to work with the Drug Awareness Resistance Education program (DARE) in local elementary schools. The citizens of Maple Ridge actively participate in the policing of their community.

The Traffic section continues to work closely with ICBC and municipal and other government agencies focusing on problem traffic locations with a view to decreasing injury accidents and dangerous driving.

The detachment engages in addressing the root causes of criminal behaviours, as well as the enforcement of law and order. As much as RCMP members have been involved and successful in drug enforcement, it is recognized that drug addiction is often the root cause of aberrant behaviour. The RCMP detachment is closely aligned with several social agencies such as Alouette Addictions, Fraser Health, Maple Ridge Treatment Centre, Social Planning Advisory Committee and the Salvation Army looking for ways to offer opportunities to those in need. The RCMP have a positive partnership with bylaw officers who liaise on projects together, with very successful outcomes.

Highlights of our 2009 achievements follow:

- Downtown Foot Patrols were enhanced in the summer months with Community Safety Officers and Youth Resource Officers when schools were not in session.
- Twenty-eight Auxiliary Constables provided “bike patrol” visibility in our downtown core and attended community events and festivals. Volunteer Bike patrol co-sponsored with ICBC providing volunteers hours and visibility in the community.
- RCMP welcomed new Officer In Charge, Superintendent Dave Walsh.
- Marihuana Enforcement Team dismantled 73 grow operations.
- RCMP worked with support agencies to provide the best care programming and opportunities available for the 25 youth identified as most at risk.
- Crime trends were analyzed on a daily basis to identify emerging problems and hotspots so that criminal intelligence could be coordinated. Prolific offenders were targeted to reduce chronic crime and police patrols were accomplished in high crime areas. Property crime offences were reduced by 2% in 2009 as compared to the same period in 2008.

Throughout 2009, the municipality placed continued emphasis on sound financial management. Council endorsed a funding strategy to address the long-term sustainability of our infrastructure recognizing the need to maintain our existing infrastructure as well as providing for future growth. By addressing these issues early, we will be in a better position to leverage the financial resources needed to sustain our infrastructure and services, employing the fiscal practices necessary to earn the confidence and trust of our citizens. Property taxation provides the District with over 50% of its revenue to provide services such as police and fire protection, parks and recreation, transportation and the associated capital requirements. Maple Ridge residents enjoy a high quality of local government services with relatively low property taxes, compared to other municipalities in British Columbia's Lower Mainland.

2009 Projected Expenditures — $203.1 Million

The Government Finance Officers' Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) has given an Award for Outstanding Achievement in Popular Annual Financial Reporting (PAFR) to the District of Maple Ridge for its Popular Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. The Award for Outstanding Achievement in Popular Annual Financial Reporting is a prestigious international award recognizing conformance with the highest standards for preparation of state/provincial and local government popular reports.

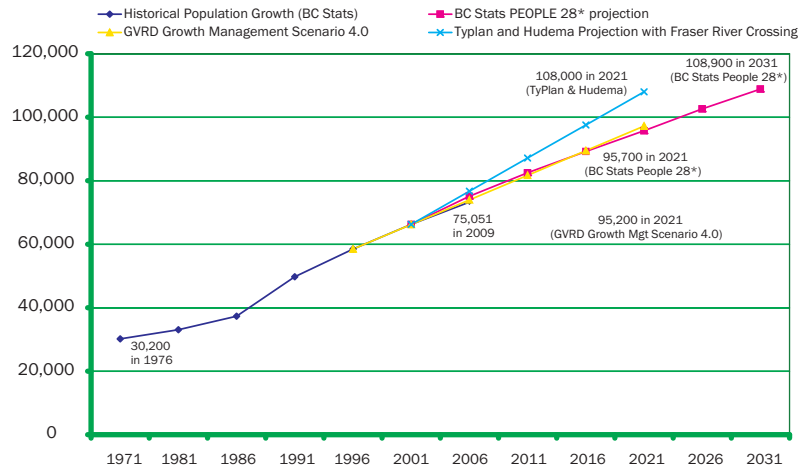

In order to receive an Award for Outstanding Achievement in Popular Annual Financial Reporting, a government unit must publish a Popular Annual Financial Report, whose contents conform to program standards of creativity, presentation, understandability, and reader appeal. An Award for Outstanding Achievement in Popular Annual Financial Reporting is valid for a period of one year only.

The municipality of Maple Ridge has received a Popular Award for the thirteenth consecutive year and is very fortunate to be only one of four municipalities in Canada awarded a PAFR for 2008. We believe our current report continues to conform to the Popular Annual Financial Reporting requirements, and we are submitting it to GFOA.
