The What's and Why's

→ A One Page Guide for Production

What Are We Asking?

Bring our #MapleRidgeFilm slates on site to take BTS photos of your production

Photos can include on site activities with cast and crew, equipment, noteworthy activities, etc.

Why Are We Asking?

The Film Slate project is part of an initiative to build and showcase the #MapleRidge Film ecosystem that comprises all members of our community, improving production-community relations and making it even easier to film in our city

Note: Photos will not be released until permissions are granted by production

What are We Using Them For?

Marketing productions in Maple Ridge, and the result of their activities, to the wider community

Dispelling the myths of film production

Bringing the public behind the lens to understand the purpose of community impacts and the industry's greater economic, social, and cultural benefits

Supporting the future of film tourism

Promoting production launch through social media outreach using the BTS photos and informing the community where it was filmed
