

SATURDAY NIGHT LAUGHS

Saturday Night Laughs

The Comedy Department

January 31, 2026 | 8pm
ACT Arts Centre Studio Theatre
Maple Ridge, BC

Saturday Night Laughs is fast, funny, and full of unexpected moments.

Every scene is made up on the spot, inspired by audience suggestions and performed by a cast of world-class comedians with decades of experience.

About the Artists

The Comedy Department is an award-winning Vancouver comedy company known for world-class improv and custom comedy entertainment. Founded by veteran comedians Denise Jones and David Milchard, the company produces sold-out weekly shows at The Show Cellar in Vancouver, plus touring shows across Canada and the US.

Denise Jones is an award-winning comedian, actor, and producer, and the co-founder of The Comedy Department. A Canadian Comedy Award winner with over 25 years of stage, TV, and film credits, Denise has performed thousands of shows worldwide, alongside comedy legends like Colin Mochrie and Ryan Stiles.

Lauren McGibbon is an actor, writer, and improviser. As part of the Mainstage Ensemble for Vancouver Theatresports, she has travelled the world performing and teaching at improv festivals and on many modes of transportation, including a Princess Cruises cruise ship as a guest entertainer. Her film and TV credits include Trial and Error (NBC), A Series of Unfortunate Events (Netflix), Scaredy Cats (Netflix), and Army of One (Dimension).

Nathan Clark is a film & television actor, improviser and sketch comedian based in Vancouver. He's performed comedy globally alongside comedy legends like Colin Mochrie and Ryan Stiles with Vancouver TheatreSports. He's a member of the original cast of the first Canadian production of "Gutenberg! The Musical!"