Through Soul, RnB and jazzy rhythms with rich and enchanting melodies, Tina Leon's music invites audiences into a sonic wonderland filled with colour, passion, and soul.

With her seasoned musicians, the Montreal-born singer-songwriter delivers a memorable performance that will challenge you not to dance.

Tina Leon - Vocals

Tina Leon is a singer-songwriter from Montreal who draws her inspiration from the Motown generation and the soul music of the last decades. Having already sung and collaborated with Stevie Wonder, DJ Champion and Garou under the artist name Marie-Christine Depestre, she now appears in a new light, more authentic and full of life than ever. Describing herself as a rainbow of soul, her first EP "Push" (August 26, 2022, via Ensoul Records) is a colorful journey through jazzy, funk, and pop rhythms with rich and enchanting melodies.

Fabienne Gilbert - Bass, Vocals

Montreal-based singer-songwriter Fabienne Gilbert is a well-known bassist and has accompanied numerous artists, including Damien Robitaille. Working in the background for the last few years as a bass player and back-up singer for many acclaimed artists, Fabienne steps out as Fab to unveil "A glitch in time", her first single from her upcoming EP.

William Côté – Drums

A renowned musician on the Quebec music scene, William Côté is a Montreal-based award-winning artist. He currently forms part of Misc (formerly known as Trio Jérôme Beaulieu), a Quebec-based instrumental jazz trio rooted in the musical styles of the modern era.

Jerome Beaulieu - Keyboard

Montreal-based pianist/keyboardist Jérôme Beaulieu has studied classical and jazz music in the past but is now passionate about all musical genres where creativity and musical interaction are required. Founding member of Misc and regular member of many projects such as Bellflower, François Jalbert & Jérôme Beaulieu, Little Misty and the Lo-Fi Octet, he has also worked with Bleu Jeans Bleu, Les Louanges, Hubert Lenoir, Yannick Rieu, The Brooks, Ivy, and many other artists from here and abroad.
