

2026 Business Planning Departmental Presentations

RCMP & Police Services

PRESENTED BY:

Superintendent Adam Gander, Officer in Charge, and Allison Macrae, Manager Police Services

Overview

- Policing services in the City of Maple Ridge are provided by the Maple Ridge RCMP. Sworn officers, civilian staff, and volunteers work together to delivery community-based policing that supports public safety, crime prevention, and community well-being across the city
- Maple Ridge contributes to regional specialized units within the Metro Vancouver area, strengthening the city's capacity to respond to complex and high-risk investigations
- The Maple Ridge RCMP is supported by 54 FTE civilian staff who play a critical role in operational, administrative, and technical support, allowing officers to remain focused on frontline policing and investigative work
- The Maple Ridge RCMP leverages both technology and specialized equipment to meet the diverse geographic needs, which includes electric bikes, the detachment's first electric police vehicle, drones, and other valuable assets

Key Challenges

- Training and Onboarding Demands.
 - Maple Ridge received 13 new cadets from Depot, while this strengthens long-term staffing, it has placed pressure on training, field coach resources, and supervisory oversight
- Evolving Federal and Provincial Requirements.
 - Ongoing changes at senior levels of government have affected policing operations:
 - Federally mandated body-worn cameras
 - Ongoing Federal exemptions to CDSA – Decriminalization
 - Provincially driven changes to disclosure practices
 - Requires significant adjustments on our day-to-day operations – both on the sworn member and civilian side
- Police Response to Mental Health Calls
 - 1,518 mental health calls for service in 2025
 - Average hospital wait time per month is 163 hours
